Report it via a Yellow Card

Side Effect suspected?

www.mhra.gov.uk/yellowcard

Use the Yellow Card Smartphone App

Paper Yellow Cards available from: BNF, MHRA website, your local pharmacy or free phone: 0800 731 6789

Do you suspect an adverse drug reaction?

Serious reaction? → Yes → Report

No ↓

Involves a black triangle medicine (▼) → Yes → Report

No ↓

Unlisted reaction → Yes → Report

No ↓

Involves a herbal remedy → Yes → Report

No ↓

Unsure To report → Yes → Report

YOU CAN ALSO USE THE YELLOW CARD _WEBSITE_ TO:

Report a counterfeit medicine or device	Report via Fake Portal
Report a defective product	Report via Defective Portal
Side effect or safety concern for an e-cigarette	Report via E-cigarette Portal

The minimum information needed for completing a Yellow Card:	Additional information to supply (this information helps assess the Yellow Card):
Names of the medicine(s) suspected to have caused the reaction For vaccines and biological medicines (including biosimilars) please include the brand name and batch number.	Details of the suspect medicine(s) if available. For example; ✓dose ✓start and stop dates if known ✓route of administration (e.g. by mouth) ✓action taken with the drug - stopped, dose change, restarted, none etc.
Suspected reaction(s)	Details of the reactions if available: ✓a brief description of reaction ✓diagnosis if relevant and known ✓start and stop dates of reaction ✓seriousness (use tick boxes on Yellow Card) ✓treatment given if any ✓reaction outcome if known ✓details of medication error if appropriate
At least one patient identifier: ✓ Sex ✓ Age ✓ Weight ✓ Initials ✓ Local identifier All should be completed if available	Any additional information you have: ✓relevant medical history ✓ test results ✓other drugs taken in the last 3 months ✓If it is a suspected congenital abnormality, state all other drugs taken during pregnancy and date of last menstrual period if known
Reporter details: Include your name and full address	If no further information is available, please indicate this on the Yellow Card